Elks Leadership Contest Started by Local Lodge

The Elks' annual search for the nation's outstanding young leaders is underway.

Robert Forsyth, Exalted Ruler of Palm Springs Lodge No. 1905, announced today that the deadline for filing entries in the Elks' National Youth Leadership Contest is February 1. The contest, open to boys and girls under 19 years of age, gives recognition to youngsters who have distinguished themselves as leaders. While the emphasis is on leadership, entrants are also judged on citizenship appreciation; perseverance and resourcefulness; and sense of honor. Boys and girls compete in separate divisions.

The boy and girl selected as the outstanding leaders of this community will be entered in the state contest conducted by the California Elks Association. Winners there will represent California in the national contest.

Exalted Ruler Forsyth said that the Lodge will award the following prizes to winners in the local contest: Winning boy and winning girl will each receive a $25 savings bond and plaque. The state awards are: $100 bond for each winning boy and girl. National awards, identical for boys and girls, are $1,000 in U. S. Defense Bonds for first prize; $500 in bonds for second and $300 in bonds for third prize.

Dr. Charles H. Baldwin, chairman of the Elks Lodge Youth Activities Committee, emphasized that the Leadership Contest is not a scholarship competition.

WINNER IN THE bicycle contest being sponsored by local merchants in conjunction with the Village Theater was Molly Ann Rogers of 466 North El Segundo. Making the presentation is Bob Fisher, theater manager.

Kegley to Speak at Meeting of Area Democrats

Carl Kegley, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress, will be the featured speaker at the regular meeting of the Palm Springs Area Democratic Club at 8 p.m., Friday, at the American Legion hall.

The local club is offering a prize for the member who brings the most guests who become members at the meeting, according to Herbert Hass, Chairman.

The group will discuss the Democratic Party's position at Riverside county and State of California nominating conventions.

Refreshments will be served following the program and business session.

Kangaroo Rats Trapped Here for Zoo in England

Kangaroo rats and other small mammals from the desert of Southern California are being live-trapped this holiday week for shipment to the Bristol zoo at Bristol, England.

The animals are being collected by Dr. Kenneth L. Gordon, professor of zoology at Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon, and his wife, Virginia.

The Gordons hope to capture some 18 kangaroo rats, as well as antelope ground squirrels and a kit fox or two if they can get them. They will collect on the Colorado desert 10 miles south of Palm Springs.

IN HIS WORKSHOP at the rear of his home in Corvallis, Dr. Gordon built all the cages that he will use in shipping the animals to England. They have a plywood floor and top and wire sides. The kangaroo rats must have separate cages as they fight savagely. To lure the small mammals, the zoologist will use the Gordon-Walker trap that he and one of his graduate students developed.

The Gordons are camping in the California desert during the holiday vacation while collecting the animals.

Many problems arise in planning to air-express the animals to England. The animals must have reservations the same as people in air-expressed pressurized planes. Customs must be cleared and there are necessary papers. Then there is the matter of feed for the animals. Wild seeds cannot be used because of possible diseases or because they might have been sprayed. Apples cannot be used as food because of state laws. Weigat of food has to be considered, too. Processed rolled oats will be used and raisins might be permitted. The animals also have to be "ice-bathed." If all goes well, the animals should arrive in England after a two-day plane trip from California.

THE KANGAROO RATS Dr. Gordon is to supply will be an attraction to the Bristol zoo's special nocturnal display. Visitors may see these night prowlers carrying on their normal activities as they would in the wild as the zoo cleverly reverses night into day. They keep the cages brightly lit at night (a resemble sunlight (and then the mammals snooze) and

Holiday Parties Enjoyed at De Luxe Park

De Luxe Trailer Park has been the scene of many gay holiday festivities this season. There was a Christmas Eve party and dance, Christmas Day dinner, and a New Year's Eve party and dance.

The large lounge and recreation hall were brilliantly decorated and specially lighted for the occasion, and by the large stone fireplace piled high with yule logs stood a 12-foot silver-top Christmas tree, a gift from a resident of the Park, Dick Strandgaard.

TRAILERITES WERE serenaded with carol singing, followed by a musical program and a reading by Robert Henry, and dancing continued until the wee small hours.

Attending the Christmas dinner were 130 guests. The table decorations were outstanding in beauty and color, with red candles and Christmas holly encircling the table. Many of the States represented, sang their State theme song, and a table was set aside for a buffet supper later in the evening.

THE NEW YEAR'S party given by the management of the Park, Dave and Alice Cromwell and the former managers, Nellie and Frank Cromwell, for the residents of the Park, was an evening of fun and merriment, with a buffet lunch.

Dancing was 'till the bells began to toll and the New Year was ushered in with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and a "Happy New Year" to everyone.

Pul-lease! My Henry uses nothing but Canada Dry!

Husbands are hard to please. Only the best is good enough. Naturally, their drinks must be flawless. Naturally, such drinks call for Canada Dry, either Ginger Ale, Club Soda or Quinine Water. Discerning people the world over prefer Canada Dry. And, domestically, it has been established that for complete compatibility between man and wife and between man and drink, always use Canada Dry.

MATCHLESS flavor... exclusive formulas... long-lasting "Pin-Point Carbonation"... brisk dryness... guarded purity. Taste for yourself why Canada Dry Ginger Ale and Club Soda are the largest-selling in the world and why Americans use more Canada Dry Quinine Water than all other quinine waters combined. This kind of recognition is not achieved overnight. It is built on half a century's devotion to quality.

EDITOR'S CORNER

• by Oliver B. Jaynes

LEARN HOW TO LIVE — Perhaps you have heard this story. It has been repeated many times but is worth re-reading. I saw it reprinted on the menu of a Miami restaurant the other day.

In 1923 a very important meeting was held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. In attendance were nine of the world's greatest money makers of that day. They included:

Charles Schwab — president of the largest independent steel company.
Samuel Insull—president of the largest utility company.
Howard Hobson—president of largest gas company.
Arthur Cotten — famed wheat speculator
Richard Whitney — president of New York Stock Exchange.
Albert Fall — Cabinet member and oil speculator.
Jessie Livermore — noted stock speculator.
Ivar Krueger — head of the world's largest monopoly.
Leon Fraser — president of Bank of International Settlement.

These men were among the world's greatest financiers. They learned well the art of making money, but not one of them learned how to live. Here is what had happened to these nine financial giants 25 years later.

Schwab died a bankrupt after living on borrowed money for five years before his death.
Insull died a fugitive from justice — and penniless in a foreign land.
Hobson lost his mind.
Cotten died insolvent in a foreign land.
Whitney went to the penitentiary.
Fall met the same fate as Whitney.
Livermore, Krueger and Fraser killed themselves to avoid consequences they couldn't face.

There is a lesson to be learned from the fate of these "successful" businessmen, who were so absorbed in their financial empires that they never learned how to live.

Seminole (Texas) Sentinel — The pressure under which the President of the United States is forced to work was plainly indicated upon the collapse of President Eisenhower.

Here is a man who has been accustomed to handling jobs which require long hours and hard work. He has learned through years to budget his work in order to provide sufficient time for needed relaxation. A man unable to organize his working hours would have collapsed much sooner. The fact of the matter is the job of being President of the United States is the biggest job in the world today, calling from the occupant of the White House a tremendous physical as well as mental strain.

It soon will be necessary for Congress to limit the jobs which are placed on the desk of the president for his personal attention.

Blackfoot (Idaho) Bulletin — With the car manufacturers producing millions of new cars each year, we keep wondering when they'll reach the saturation point — each year brings out new models and they are somehow sold. For almost every new car sold, there is a trade-in car placed in the second-hand lot and they too, always seem to find their way to a new owner. The production of new cars seems to be going ahead much faster than the older models are disappearing from the highways and the marvel to us, is that there always seems to be a market for these millions and millions of automobiles. We're beginning to wonder as year follows year if there ever will be such a thing as a saturation point.

Dillon (S.C.) Herald — The farmers have more power than the combined power of all the labor unions. If the farmers were to strike and plant only enough food for themselves and their families every business in the nation would have to close down. No greater calamity could befall the nation. The farmer knows that he has this tremendous power, but he carries it with infinite patience while selfish and thoughtless men on the sidelines continue to fight among themselves with the utter disregard of the effect their wrangles will have on the welfare of mankind. Many times in the past the farmers have saved the world, and if the present trend toward intolerable conditions continues it may be the farmer who will have to bring the disturbers to their senses.

THOSE FAT PIGGIES — Have you got scruples? Junk them. Have you got character? Ha! Have you got integrity? Pitch it. Have you got a child? Yes? Has he got a piggy bank? Yes? Now we're getting somewhere. Smash it!

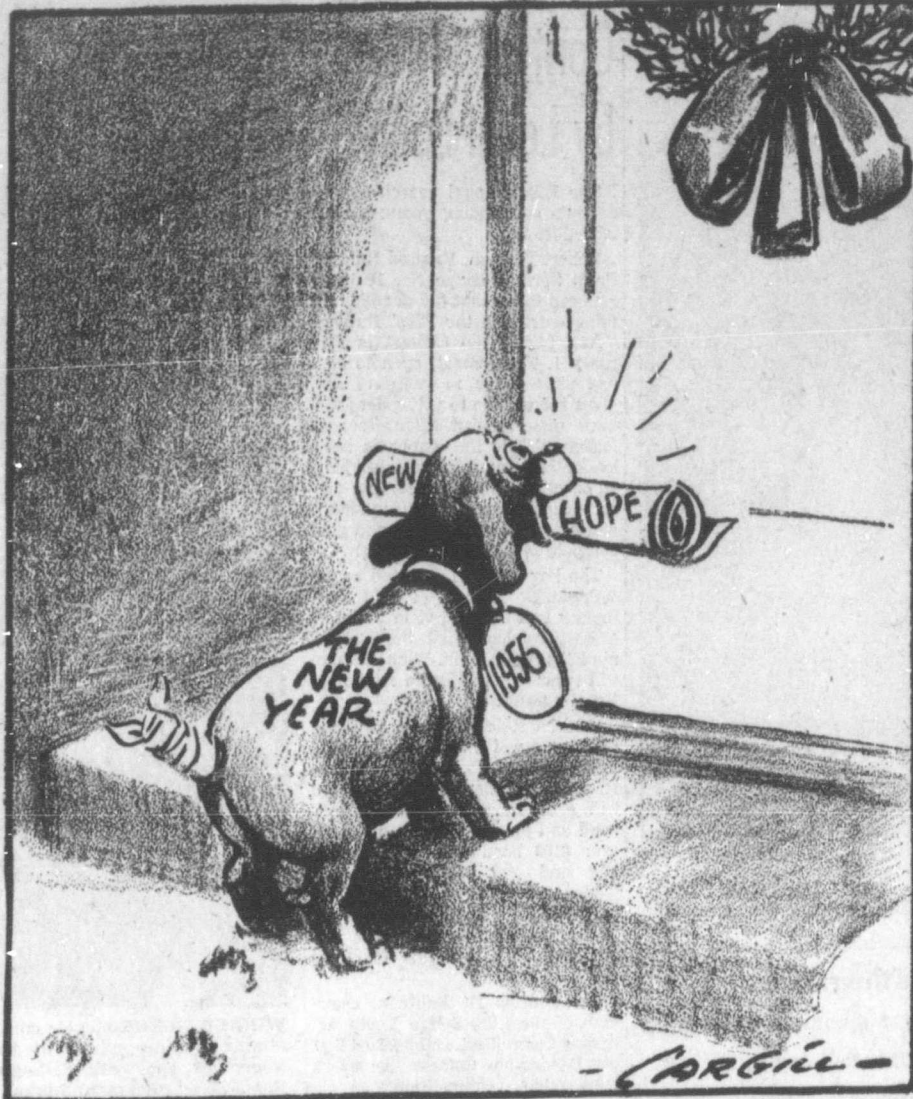

Snitch every penny. Explain to Junior it's for the good of the country, the equilibrium of the monetary system, the economic security of generations yet unborn. Ring in Santa Claus, too somewhere. He'll understand.

These dire days it's the patriotic thing to do. It's no two-bit emergency. The country's so short of pennies the she-shoppers' whole system of odd-cent bargains is endangered.

One bank has even started giving $1.05 for every 100 coppers brought in. What if that spreads? You don't want hoggish piggy banks breaking biggie banks do you? Or government sinking billions into fat little piggies to plow them back into tills?

Besides, when pennies in one's pocket get seldom—who knows?—dollars may be next. Or are they?

Today it is January five—and many a guy is now getting back to feeling again that he is glad to be alive. A lot of them didn't see much percentage in being alive on January first. The day after the big thirst. In fact, I wonder how that certain Villager I met Sunday morning greeted the dawn of today. At that time he told me, with a sorrowful mien: "I never want to see a fifth again."

BILL FADDEN has lived in the same apartment for five years. Going home and unlocking the door is practically automatic. Imagine his consternation Sunday night (this is a belated report) when he tried to fit the key into the lock and it wouldn't work. So he took out the spare key he keeps in his wallet. That didn't work either. At first he debated with himself: "Sunday night, 9 p.m., shall I go to a hotel or try to arouse a locksmith?" Too cold to roam the streets. So he finally decided on the latter. Couldn't arouse a locksmith by pummeling the door. So he resorted to the telephone and got his man. The locksmith came down. Looked at the lock. Looked at the key. Looked at Fadden. Said: "Turn the key over. You've been trying to put it in upside down." Cost Bill $3 for the momentary mental lapse. And it was Sunday night at 9 p.m., not Saturday night at midnight.

FINALLY HAVE figured out one more of my scribbled notes. This one looked like RB300. After much cogitation, figured it out. It was about a certain Villager and concerned the Rose Bowl game and $300 in wagers. This fellow took UCLA and six points. When Michigan State went ahead 14-7, he quit the TV screen and went for a ride in the desert. Figure he was out the $300 smack-ers. Came home dejectedly about 7 p.m. Found everybody bubbling about a great game. "Who won?" he asked. "Michigan State," was the reply. He walked away sadly until he heard someone say: "Gee, what a game! A field goal in the last seven seconds." "What was the score?" he yelled. "17 to 14." He faintly. With that six-point spread, he was ahead $300. But he didn't realize that much. He spent a third of it celebrating. I hope they don't pick me up for conspiracy for mentioning that someone gambled.

STILL GOING over notes scribbled on the inside of a match box while listening to radio at Ontario last Monday, see another which I now have decoded. It said "Ikefia." That puzzled me for a time until I remembered the remarks of a news commentator on President Eisenhower's visit to Key West. "Everybody's happy," he intoned. "What looked like a sorry season, is going to be a honey. Because Ike is here, the community is prosperous. Thousands of tourists are rolling in. The hotels, restaurants, service stations are having an unexpected boom." Well, it could happen here, too. Only, probably, we don't need it as much as Key West.

WAS THOROUGHLY in sympathy with Oliver B. Jaynes and the remarks he makes about truck traffic, Monday night. It was a sort of harrowing experience what with the Rose Bowl and Santa Anita home-geers coming this way and the hundreds who spent the holiday in the desert going the other way, to have those box cars and tank cars on the highway almost riding your back bumper.

Congressional Report

By Representative John Phillips

I should have said, last week, that the old George Washington Inn is now about to be torn down, as are almost all the old houses and buildings which adjoin the House Office Buildings. This is partly to make way for a third House Office Building and for parking space which is now lacking for Congressmen and a growing number of secretaries and committee employees, and partly in connection with a multi-million dollar project to re-plan and rebuild southwest Washington. The next Representative from this District will acquire some advantage from the former and will see the latter develop.

I should also remark here, so as not to forget it, that Washington is a cold and sometimes unpleasant city, in its climate. I spent the first twenty years of my life trying to get out of this damp and cold east-coast climate. Finally, as the result of the first World War, I made it to California and managed to get in 18 delightful years, before you sent me back here!

You may think this warning is unnecessary but you would be surprised at the number of Californians who fly down here, from the desert areas, wearing California-weather clothes, and with only a thin coat. Some of them have come without any overcoat at all. I want to say, for the record, that there are two very good seasons in Washington, Spring and Fall; the other two we accept only as necessary to complete the year.

WE WILL PRESUME the new Congressman has found a place to live. He, or she, is now prepared to take over the new Congressional office and having visited the predecessor Congressman or other Congressional friends, has visualized a nicely located, large and comfortable office. This will be the first shock, of many, for the "M. C. elect."

(Note to readers of these letters: I shall now stop saying "he or she." As we write into our bills, "the masculine includes the feminine and the singular includes the plural." It is getting complicated. You will understand I refer to both men and women Congressmen, and in the 29th District, you can settle that interesting issue on June 5, 1956.)

The Congressman finds first that he has nothing to do with the selection of his first office, and then he finds that, though the new Congress convenes at noon on January 3 (unless by resolution the retiring Congress sets another date) he may not be able to get into his office until the 3.

FORTUNATELY, MEMBERS retiring, voluntarily or by request of their constituents, are as a group courteous, helpful and will either vacate, or allow the new Member the use of desk room or of one of the offices.

My first office (239, in the Old House Office Building) had been used by a defeated Democratic member from Maine, and he was so sure the then Administration was going to give him an appointment (which it had no intention of doing apparently) that he literally sat by the telephone every moment of the day, until the afternoon the new Congress convened. However, he let me use the rest of the office. One Democrat, recently, was so bitter about his defeat that he not only refused any help to the new Republican member who was to get his office space but threatened to throw him out bodily if he tried to come in. Fortunately, in my thirteen years, he stands out as an exception.

A CONGRESSMAN GETS an office on the basis of that magic attribute known as "seniority." The first year he takes what he is given. It will be a satisfactory office, don't worry, but it may be on the basement level on the Old Building, or far from his committee room, or for some other reason he may want to change later.

If his committee room is in the old building, he will probably want to stay there, but will try to move to a larger office. The offices vary in size and shape, and of course in light and sunshine and outlook. So he watches carefully to see when and where offices are vacated. He gets no official notice; he or his secretary must be on the alert.

A member dies, or is appointed to some other office, or retires—for some reason there is an office being vacated. Any Congressman who wants that office, in preference to the one he occupies, may "file on it." That is, he calls up, or writes the Building Superintendent and puts his name on the list. After a short time, the length of which depends on minor conditions not important here, the list is closed. The Congressman on the list who has been in the Congress the longest time, gets the office. If there are two or more who came in the same day, they (or their secretaries) go to the Superintendent's office and draw for it.

THAT SOMETIMES starts a chain reaction. If he is moving from an office somebody else wants, the same process is repeated. The chain reaction also applies to moving at the beginning of the Congress. Members take advantage of changes and retirements to move into better offices, by the process I have just described. In December, every two years, the halls are often full of hand trucks and crews of men expertly moving office furniture and files. But suppose one Member, going out, occupies a desirable office and declines to move until the last moment. All behind him have to wait. On January 1, 1943, there were a dozen members waiting to move and unable to do so because one member wanted and needed his office to the last possible moment.

Next week: the salary and the prerequisites of a Congressman.

It Happened Last Night

NEW YORK—Errol Flynn met Publisher Bob Harrison of "Confidential," whom he's suing for $1,000,000, in El Morocco the other night . . . and for a while everybody thought Flynn might mop up the place and also Harrison.

For they used to say that Flynn "wouldn't fight any place but El Morocco"—but on this trip from Spain to do a Martha Raye TV show, he's milder, for he called across to Harrison at the next table!

"You know I've got you! How about settling for $100,000 right now? I happen to have a check with me, good on any bank."

For reply Publisher Harrison hopped over to Flynn's table and kissed him on the forehead, crying, "I love you!"

"Isn't that assault?" asked Flynn. "Can't I sue for some more?"

Harrison's lawyer, Dan Ross, accompanying him, said to Flynn, "It would be very nice if you two could have a talk while you're here." Flynn sat down with him and complained that the controversial article told of alleged incidents on his honeymoon with Patricia Wymore, "in Hollywood."

"Actually, we were married in Monte Carlo, not Hollywood," shouted Flynn.

"The locations are bungled," acknowledged the lawyer.

"The whole article's bungled and you'll pay," insisted Flynn.

It ended there, without fisticuffs, but Flynn said later that since he's living in Palma, Mallorca, he's leading a life of "contemplation."

"I've given up motion picture acting," he said. "I believe my future is in litigation."

"You won't be going back to Hollywood?" I asked him.

"I can imagine nothing as abhorrent as going back to Hollywood," he replied. "When you've been away for a while you look back in amazement that you were able to spend almost 20 years in such a silly place."

"I hate the hypocrisy of the town and even with the climate you've still got Jack Warner."

"Good luck to Tab Hunter and to Marlow Brando. They'll find out."

Flynn said he'd gone there for 3 months, "but on a boat I met a girl—Lili Damita," and that he hasn't been able to get even with the alimony since. He claimed that some lawyers—whom he fictitiously labeled as "Smith, Smith, Screwdriver and Smith"—have kept him paying, paying, paying since.

"Mallorca is such a wonderful place," Flynn said enthusiastically. "It has no movie actors and practically no lawyers. I think that's why it's such a wonderful place. There's nobody there," he added "but a lot of 'squares'—and nice people."

Washington Report

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's impending State of the Union message bears the direct impact of another world-discussed message.

It is Pope Pius' fervent Christmas plea for a ban on atomic warfare.

Prior to this, the President's annual message to Congress was virtually in final form. It had been considered by the cabinet, and approved by the policy-making National Security Council.

But after the Pontiff's urgent disarmament appeal, including halting further atomic weapon tests, the President's message was importantly revised.

The manner in which these significant changes would be incorporated in the President's message was discussed by him and Secretary of State Dulles at their special conference the morning after Christmas. Work on these additions was later completed at Key West.

It can be reported that Pius XII's solemn warning, of the cataclysmic menaces of nuclear weapons and the dire need for an effective system to bar their use, was not unexpected to U. S. authorities.

They anticipated the Pontiff would express his views. He signified that intention to Harold Stassen, when the special White House assistant on disarmament had a private audience with the Pope last fall.

Stassen flew to Rome expressly for this purpose. His conference lasted two-and-a-half hours, during which he gave the Pontiff a detailed exposition of American policy and proposals on disarmament, including the President's famed "open sky" inspection plan which Russia is unyieldingly opposing.

At the State Department it was believed Pius XII was preparing an encyclical. There was no advance information that this fateful problem would be discussed in his 17th annual Christmas message. To that extent the Pope's pronouncement was a surprise.

WHAT'S AT STAKE — Reason it was deemed desirable to revise the President's State of the Union message is an emphatic stand being taken by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The four top military leaders are insisting on the need for more atomic tests.

A new and as-yet-unannounced series is scheduled in the South Pacific in May. One of these contemplated experiments will be a new-type hydrogen weapon, capable of the mightiest destructive force so far exploded by any country. This test may be an air drop. So far the U. S. has never exploded a hydrogen bomb from a plane.

In addition to these tests, Britain is quietly making preparations for two series of its own in Australia; the first in April, at Monte Bello Islands, the second in May at Maralinga, a new proving ground 500 miles west of Woomera.

Stassen has suggested taking the initiative and proposing a one-year moratorium on nuclear tests by all countries.

This twelve-month period would be used, under his plan, to negotiate an across-the-board disarmament agreement, including controls on the production of atomic and other types of weapons.

The Joint Chiefs are strongly against cancellation of the May tests.

General Nathan Twining, speaking for the group, told President Eisenhower the series is "absolutely essential" for perfecting certain new weapons, controls and methods. Unless these indispensable experiments are conducted, the Air Chief of Staff warned, the U. S. may lose its leadership in life-and-death developments.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

ART CARNEY tells one of those stories about the smart young brother who always was underfoot when his pretty sister wanted to pitch a little woo with her boy friend. To get rid of him one afternoon the b.f. suggested, "Why don't you go down to the street, Willie, and count the men who are wearing red hats. I'll give you a quarter for every one that goes by."

To the surprise of both love birds, Willie, usually very cagey, fell in with this suggestion. Fifteen minutes later, however, they heard his triumphant voice from below. "I don't know how you two are doing up there," he holered, "but my ship is about to come in. Here comes the Shriners' parade!"

In his book of excellent verse called "Light Armour," Dick Armour observes:

Women, one finds,
Make up their minds,
Quarrels, and faces
In public places.

Sky Ridge Residents View Movies of Hawaii, Mexico

A pleasant evening was spent by several of the Sky Ridge residents last Thursday when A. F. Campbell entertained with the showing of colored movies on Hawaii, Mexico and Florida. Light refreshments were served at the close of the pictures.

The delightful weather which we have experienced the past week has been conducive to the use of the heated swimming pool and Sky Ridge residents and guests alike have made good use of it.

Mrs. W. G. Brooks and Mrs. R. L. Gourley were co-hostesses, entertaining the Esther Circle of the Palm Springs Community Church at a dessert luncheon in the clubroom of Sky Ridge on Thursday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Day are leaving for their home in Alhambra on Tuesday morning after several months stay here. They will be missed by all the Sky Ridge family and all join in wishing Dr. Day a continued speedy recovery from his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rusie had as their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Leap and daughter, from Whitney Island Naval Base in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scott are spending some time at their home in Mill Valley.

Mrs. Maureen Mundell is visiting with her sister in North Hollywood, over the New Year holiday.

Mrs. Jessie Seville of Pomona visited with her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brooks, on Saturday.

Harvey Gerth and Jimmy Frye spent the weekend visiting in Twentynine Palms.

Mr. and Mrs. MacConnehey have had his father and mother visiting them from Indiana.

Mrs. Wallace Taylor has been spending the Christmas and New Year holidays with her family in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken White and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hood drove into Pasadena for the Tournament of Roses Parade and the Rose Bowl game.

Mrs. Lester Winship is in the Desert Hospital suffering with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murray had as their guests over the weekend their son and daughter-in-law and their two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Meyers stopped in to visit with their home town friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Conroy of Redwood City, who are trailerites at Sky Ridge.

By BILL RASHALL

For those who may have missed reading Gene Sherman's column in the Los Angeles Times the other day called "City Side," the item pertaining to football pools had as much significance here as the episode that was described in Los Angeles.

To quote Gene in part: an attorney had pleaded his client guilty to the charge of possessing a football pool card. For those who may not know the card has a number of squares upon it and each square contains a number. Then those who participate in the pool pick a number usually out of a hat or box. That number corresponds with a number in one of the squares on the card. If the number of points scored in the game tallies correctly with one of the numbers in one of the squares some one person wins the pool.

WELL, AFTER THE attorney had pleaded his clients guilty, he offered to take the judge on a tour of every office, legal firm, grocery store and haberdashery within a radius of 20 minutes travel from the court room and show the judge similar pools.

The Magistrate looked down from the bench and smiled. Then he declared that it wouldn't be necessary for the attorney to move out of the court room. Lifting one end of the green blotter before him the Judge displayed a number indicating that he too had participated in a football pool that morning. Sentence was suspended. Wouldn't it be great if our police department with the intelligence and leadership that it now has could be permitted to use that intelligence to the best advantage of the entire community.

I UNDERSTAND that there were several telephone calls made to the president of the California Water and Telephone company following Unedited's criticism of the service here for almost seven years. And that a hurry up conference was held in order to come up with something that would subdue the wrath of so many people who called city officials and others.

Nat "King" Cole, due in the Starlight Room of the Chi Chi this Friday will, I'll bet anyone, play to a packed house. He does wherever he performs. One of his greatest admirers is Jimmy Van Heusen, by the way.

AND THERE ARE quite a number of people in this town who are heart broken over a rift that has developed between two very nice people who are still, everybody believes, madly in love with each other. There is no known cause for the rift either, according to both sides. They are such nice people too. I do not have to mention their names 'cause everybody is talking about them anyway. I just hope that if both of them read this they may,

I pray, reconsider and take time out to do a bit of thinking. Divorce is so final.

Arthur Elrod, interior decorator who handles some of the finest furniture manufactured anywhere, has made a terrific impact on this community with his ideas. If you have a yen to get away from the dull browns, greys and sand color traditional interiors with a startling visual effect visit the model apartments decorated by Elrod for Desert Braemar. That man has actually taken the blue of our beautiful desert sky, the star studded nights and the colorful gardens about us to blend them all into a delightful habitat. He has actually brought the outside inside with his schemes of interior decorating!

ON THE SUBJECT of causes and crusades, as one Red Kenyon declared, let's give with a yelp about a pension system for our city employees. Believe me, they deserve it! Proposed are millions of dollars for improvements and a new city hall and nothing about human improvement of mind and security in lieu of low wages.

And what a New Year celebration this town saw! Made 13 night spots New Year's Eve. Every place was loaded right to the door sills and so was I by the time 2 a. m. rolled around. That's a-nuf.

Of the 300,000 civilians who serve the U.S. Army in foreign countries, less than 14,000 are American citizens. The remainder are natives of the area in which they work.

treasurer; Mary Lou Elliot, ways and means committee, and Mrs. Frank Grizzell, parliamentarian. Each officer received a corsage from the escorting senior officer and each lit a candle from the Federation torch. Refreshments were served by the Senior Women's Club, and decorations were done by Mrs. Margaret Davidson, junior coordinator for the Senior Women. A musical program was presented by the Palm Springs high school choir.

TEARING DOWN THE goal posts at the Rose Bowl game, following its play over television at the Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert, are left to right, Miss Leigh Chronister (hidden), Dick Maher, Phil Burgess, Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mrs. Richard Paul, Robert Brownell, Miss Josephine Lemons, Dale Miller and Hal Kapp. The club played host to over 400 enthusiastic football fans on Monday, at the first annual Rose Bowl Brunch. This unique party converted the entire Club into a stadium filled with cheering throngs of spectators. The dining room was set up grandstand style, complete with four TV sets, miniature goal posts, pennants, and cheering sections. After the game rabid fans tore down the goal post in traditional fashion prior to a Victory Dance filled with the old college spirit.

Second Tuesday Club Celebrates

CATHEDRAL CITY—The Second Tuesday Club of Cathedral City held its annual holiday party at the home of Mrs. Robert Sherrill during Christmas week.

The affair was a festive dinner which was followed with the exchange of gifts. Their "secret pals" for the year were revealed and drawing for the pals of the coming year were made before the ladies bid goodnight.

2 Ordinance Readings Required by Supervisors

RIVERSIDE—A suggestion by Supervisor Warren that in the future ordinances of the county have two readings before adoption, in order to allow time for study by the supervisors, and for an expression of public opinion, was received favorably and acted upon by the supervisors Tuesday. Only emergency ordinances will be excepted from the new policy.

Warren first suggested that the supervisors be given copies of ordinances on Fridays preceding the Mondays on which they are scheduled for consideration, but later switched to the routine followed by most cities. "We can vote more intelligently with more time to study proposed ordinances," said Warren.

January 25, 1957.

The extension of time was recommended by the county planning commission.

Art Exhibit to be Presented by Verhaeren

PALM DESERT—Desert Empire residents and visitors are cordially invited to attend a display of art by Carolus Verhaeren, internationally known portrait and landscape artist, to be held in the spacious foyers of Desert Magazine's pueblo along Highway 111 here. The show begins Sunday, and ends January 14.

Verhaeren will feature the Navajo Indians of Arizona in his local exhibit. The artist is a former resident of the Gap Trading Post, Arizona, where he was able to observe the Indians and their way of life. The show will include landscapes from the Palm Desert and Borrego Valley areas.

Verhaeren was born in Antwerp, Belgium, on June 18, 1908, and began his career as an apprentice at the age of 18. A year later he came to America and then to Canada where he studied portraiture under the French portrait artist, George DeVore.

At 19 the artist began a 16-year career as a portrait painter and then turned to landscapes, developing, as he did, the use of the palette knife in painting. Many critics regard Verhaeren as the outstanding master of the palette knife technique today.

He has exhibited widely in many cities of the world. Since moving to the West he exhibited at the de Young Memorial Museum in San Francisco where he

Al Laurye O.K. after Collapse

Al Laurye, 49-year-old owner of Laurye's Steak Ranch on Highway 111 south of Palm Springs, returned to Desert Hospital this afternoon for a final check-up following his semi-collapse in a mid-down drug-store Tuesday afternoon. His condition was induced by physical exhaustion.

Laurye, who lives with his wife at 1000 South Calle Marcus, Palm Springs, said he was taken to the hospital following a dizzying momentary blackout at the drug-store, and released yesterday. He said the past 10 days during the holidays have been hectic and fatiguing, and added that he feels fit and well now.

Wonder Palms Replaces Ave. 38

RANCHO MIRAGE—The official name for Wonder Palms Road between State Highway 111 and Rio Del Sol Road southeast of Palm Springs, is no longer Avenue 38. The official name has been changed to "Wonder Palms Road," the name long recognized for it by desert dwellers.

"To almost everyone in the area the street is commonly known as Wonder Palms Road," Ray H. Stager, manager of Wonder Palms Hotel and one of a number of petitioners for the official name change, told planning commissioners and supervisors. "The name was attached to it many years ago while Wonder Palms Garden was the only improved property on the road," he explained.

"Avenue 38 smacks too much of the big city and lacks the imagination required for the naming of our desert roads in America's foremost desert resort," scoffed Tony Burke, real estate broker and long time Palm Springs enthusiast. Burke is now a home owner on "Wonder Palms Road."

No opposition to the name change petition was made at hearings before the planning commission and the board of supervisors, and the supervisors gave their official approval Tuesday.

New Year's Eve Party Hosted by B. W. Wades

CATHEDRAL CITY—A New Year's Eve party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Wades of Cathedral City. Those present to ring in the New Year were Mr. and Mrs. James Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colglazier, Cora Jackson of Coachella and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson of San Diego. The Wades poured cocktails from 7:30 through the evening, with a beautiful buffet ending a late night celebration.

Street Names Selected by Cathedral City Voters

CATHEDRAL CITY—The Chamber of Commerce, following the counting of votes at their meeting at the Town Hall Tuesday night, approved the changing of the eight street names with this city.

A report on the vote was given by George Miller, committee chairman, and he said that of the 350 ballots that were sent out to property owners who would be effected, one-half had been returned.

The official vote count was:
In Favor of the proposed name change ..... 99
Opposed to the name change ..... 76
Total votes cast ..... 175

In accordance with the vote (the ballots listed three proposed new names for the lettered streets), the new street names will be: Apache; Bellota; Carrita; Descanso; Encanto; Flores; Granada; and Hacienda. Each of these street names will replace the present alphabetical letter.

Cathedral City Plans 'Town Hall' Meeting Tuesday Night

CATHEDRAL CITY—At the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce presided over by President Clark Cobb, plans were made for an old-fashioned Town Hall meeting at which everyone, whether members or not, is invited. It will be held Tuesday, January 10, beginning with a pot-luck dinner at 6:30—"bring your own table service, coffee provided by Chamber of Commerce."

The general meeting will be called to order at 8 p.m. and anything and everything concerning the problems of the community and plans for civic betterment will be on the agenda.

A district representative of the post office department will attend to discuss proposals for city mail delivery. There will also be an open discussion as to possible need for incorporation with, or annexation to Palm Springs.

ATTENDING LAST night's meeting were: Mrs. Edna Cobb, president of Cathedral City Woman's Club, Mrs. Madeline Gallerani, Junior Woman's Club, Margaret Davidson, Senior Club coordinator, to ask for use of the Town Hall two nights per month.

In order to accommodate the meeting of the newly organized Junior Woman's Club, the Chamber of Commerce directors gave up their meeting night so that the Junior Woman's Club can have the first and third Tuesdays in each month. For the balance of the season the directors will hold their regular first Tuesday of the month meeting in the library.

A REPORT CONCERNING the lighting of the Palm trees in the Broadway islands and at the entrance of the city, was made by President Clark Cobb. It appears that considerable more money will have to be raised. This will be another subject of discussion at the Town Hall meeting next week.

A new sign was authorized at the east end of the Village to replace the one which has been blown down.

Claim for $15,000 Filed Against Riverside County

INDIO—A claim of $15,000 for personal injuries and medical expenses resulting from what she alleged as being "jerked violently and suddenly" and thrown to the ground as she attempted to get on a shuttle conveyance hauled by a tractor and used to take fair visitors to and from the parking area and the fairgrounds in Indio, was filed against the county by Martha E. Musselman of San Bernardino, and received by the supervisors this week.

It was, in accordance with usual procedure, rejected and referred to the county's insurance carrier. The woman charged that first aid administered on the fair grounds when the accident occurred at last year's fair and date festival was "negligently and carelessly administered" and resulted in infection and blood poisoning as well as aggravation of hypertension.

She said she had been led to believe that her doctors' bills would be paid by the insurance company and had never been advised that it would be necessary for her to file a formal claim. She said she was advised October 15, 1955, that her claim would not be paid and that she had allowed her alleged claim statute to run out thereby losing her right to file a claim.

She charges that "chicanery prevented her valid filing of a claim."

New Year's Gala One at Ranch

New Year's Eve at the Ranch Club was a gala affair with over 400 people dancing to three orchestras. Familiar faces spotted in the merry throng were Hugh O'Brien; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Curtis, Commander and Mrs. John Berne with their week end guests from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schu (Dorothy Phillips the designer); Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henwood; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bagdasarian; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Dunlevie; Harry J. Drewery; Chef Melani.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Clarke's dinner guests included the Allen Youngs, Larry Finleys, Ginny Simms and Dr. Al Huenegard; Martha Ellis and Pierre La Mure. New Year's Eve found Marion Brando happily ensconced in a secluded corner at the Ranch Club with Rita Moreno. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brown (he is Samuel Goldwyn Jr.'s assistant) and Sam Gillman (Brando's closest friend) with Virginia Leth (under contract to Fox).

Pre-holiday diners were Frank Sinatra with the William Goetz, Mike Todd and Evelyn Keyes, Anatole Litvak and William Wyler.

Many New Guests at El Mirador after Holidays

Among the many guests enjoying the Desert sunshine at El Mirador are the Dan Harringtons of Piedmont and the W. J. Kaneems of Long Beach.

Here for a week's stay is George J. Haney of New York, and also the Clarence Smit family of Chicago. Mrs. John J. Beber of Beverly Hills is here for an indefinite stay.

Among other guests are Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Regele of Beverly Hills and Los Angeles. (He is an executive of Standard Marine Insurance Company); and Mr. and Mrs. George B. McManus (he is vice president of Kaiser Steel) of Oakland.

Dining together the other evening were Frank McMahon of New York City; W. G. Gilmore of San Francisco, and George Shistar of Ross, California.

Host Friends at Idyllwild Cabin

For the sixth year Mr. and Mrs. Lou Billington prepared their Idyllwild cottage for an all day gathering of friends from Palm Springs to witness the Pasadena Rose parade and the Rose Bowl game via television.

More than 15 guests enjoyed cocktails and a specially prepared holiday dinner. The cabin was decorated with Oregon holly.

Mr. Billington who has resided in Palm Springs for thirty years, and his wife for 20 years had as their guests the following: Mesdames and Messers Lawrence Richards, Don Floan, John Connell, William Brill, Maynard Groth, Chester Sproul, and Mrs. Gladys Capper, Robert Groom and Mrs. Emily Salin of San Francisco.

Cut inner-facing for collars, cuffs, and pocket flaps off about half an inch at the corners and the finished product will be trimmer.

Clubs Plan Dinner on January 16

Tickets to the Inter-Service Club dinner, to be held at the Chi Chi on the evening of January 16, will be distributed this week to members of Soroptimist International of Palm Springs, Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs. It was announced Tuesday when Soroptimists held their weekly luncheon meeting in Chi Chi Starlite Room.

Lois Lux, who presided in the absence of the president Wynne Hammond, said that Irwin Schumann will present Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy in his entertainment the evening of the Inter-Service Club dinner.

Tuesday guests at the Soroptimist Club meeting were Elsie Addis of the Indio Club and Dorothy Watering of Altadena.

The program next Tuesday will be in charge of Mabel Russell who will present Stanley Jalloff, who will show pictures from Hawaii.

Proceeds from the show will also be used to underwrite a series of plays here by the famous Dublin Players. This is planned for next November.

First Playhouse production will be "Oh Men, Oh Women" produced by Herb Rogers opening on Tuesday, January 17 in the Palm Springs Playhouse on Sunrise Way.

A Sponsor's Ball will precede the opening of the regular run of the play. The formal ball will be held in El Mirador Hotel on Monday evening January 16 following an invitational Preview Performance.

Woman's Circle Meeting Tuesday

The next program of the Woman's Circle of the Community Church will be on Tuesday, January 10, at 2 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church, with Mrs. Wilson Hall presiding.

Police Officer Ted Green will give highlights of the youth work of his department. There will also be an organ solo by Miss Inez Wesby and a violin solo by Mrs. Hazel Hitchcock.

The Missionary Group meets on the same day at 12:30 p.m. in the Sunday School room, with Mrs. Harry Yesley in charge.

After the meetings, tea will be served in the Church parlor by Mrs. Jack Williams and her committee.

All friends of the Church are cordially invited to attend.

First Birthday

Keith William Herbert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Herbert celebrated his first birthday on December 28. His parents invited a few friends to help celebrate the occasion. Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Wadsworth of Arcadia and daughter, Sherry, a student at Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dodd and Mrs. Frank Ewing and daughter, Joan, a student at Redlands University were on hand to sing "Happy Birthday" to little Bill.

DON AND BETH Butterworth spent several days in Phoenix as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. So-loth. Mrs. Butterworth is the owner of the Gem Shop on Highway 111, across from Blue Skies Trailer Park.

Black spots on portable electric equipment will not form if you suds off the surfaces soon after using.

Don't grab a hot cooking utensil with a damp dish towel. Heat travels rapidly through the moisture.

Half a dozen inexpensive, large metal trays can be helpful during indoor repainting projects, particularly if you're re-doing the kitchen, dining room or bath. Unload the contents of a shelf or drawer onto a tray to save time. While the paint is drying, you can weed out unwanted items.

You'll get a better pie crust if the ingredients in the filling are cool when you put them in the shell.

Wrap some empty boxes in fancy paper to decorate the Christmas tree after all the gifts have been opened.

THE ROD BURNHAMS who came back to Palm Springs this season after an absence of several years, paid a holiday visit to old friends in the Newport area, and were photographed at the Balboa Bay Club. They are, from left, Karen, Mr. Burnham, Begay, Mrs. Burnham and Ricky. Karen and Ricky are twins.

Many Holiday Guests Linger for Extra Days of Sunshine

The hectic but glamorous New Year's celebration is over but many of the Palm Springs Biltmore's guests are extending their visit to "rest up" and absorb more desert sunshine.

Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Field, Excelsior, Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Arnoff and daughter, Denver; Mr. and Mrs. F. Lovett, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Dan. Seman, Roslyn, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Topp, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. E. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Chapman, Chicago.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Swartz, Winnipeg, Canada; Abe Schechter, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fink, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Spats, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rowland, George N. Cusick, San Francisco; Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Coleman, Reno, Nevada; Dr. Ralph I. Tapia, Fresno; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hogan, Kentfield, California; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lesoine, son Robert, Ross, California; H. E. Sarthou, A. E. Sarthou, Porterville, California.

Also Dr. and Mrs. Fred Z. Reiter, Dr. Victor G. Lands, Beverly Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Freschi, La Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Ben.

Hosts Friends

Barry De Vorzon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jules De Vorzon, had ten of his friends in for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres on New Year's Day to see the parade and game. Barry, who is in the Navy stationed in San Diego, had a buddy, Anthony Pacelli, as his house guest during the holidays.

MR. AND MRS. QUINCY Welch of Compton and Mr. and Mrs. Ace Endicott of Norwalk were in the Village for two days visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Welch is the former Jean Pigneri, sister of Mrs. Sal Allessandro.

RALPH CALMY, who has been making his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Calmy for the past two months, left for New York before the holidays. He has gone East on business and his stay is indefinite.

Cocktail-Buffer Fetes Houseguest

A cocktail party for forty guests that began in the garden around the pool at the home of Charel de Thome, was an affair to honor his houseguest Dr. George Gaal of Chicago. When the cool evening breezes arose the guests retired indoors where another bar was put into service until the announcement that hot buffet was being served called the guests to the dining room.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alden Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans, Dr. and Mrs. Claude Simpson, Dorothy Stinson, Dean of U. C. L. A., Edith Clark, head of the Los Angeles City College, Elaine Elser, Dora Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Schwartz, visiting this country from Hungary, Lillian Goff, Mildred Potter and Fred Johnson of Los Angeles.

Rummage Sale

Jobs Daughters will hold a three day Rummage Sale, starting today and continuing through Saturday, at 384 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Anyone wishing to contribute rummage for the sale is asked to bring it to the sale or to call Mrs. M. Groth at 4277.

NEW YEAR'S weekend guests at the Bonaire were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Rothschild; Martha Ellis; Pierre LaMure; Mr. and Mrs. David Rose; Sy Devore.

Charges FBI Forced Him to Spy on Commies for Them

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — A 45-year-old former Oakland, Calif., laborer charged today the FBI forced him to join the Communist party here to serve as an undercover agent and to help expose a local Red cell.

The FBI denied the charge. Cleve Owens said in an affidavit that Communists are, or have been, interested in keeping close touch with employees at top secret Sandia Atomic Base here which manufactures the trigger for the atomic bomb, or at Kirtland Air Force Base, whose planes drop the A-bomb.

Owens' statement followed the resignation of two sisters, Miss Mannie Gallegos, 22, and Mrs. Iola D. Ellis, 24, from their jobs at Sandia base. They charged they were harassed because they had associated with a former Communist. The former Communist turned out to be Owens, a half-brother.

Owens made his statements in an affidavit for the Albuquerque Journal, which first had exposed the charges by the sisters.

D. A. Bryce, agent in charge of the Albuquerque FBI office, issued a terse denial.

Owens said he joined the Communist party after the local union to which he belonged while driving a cab in Oakland fell into receivership during a strike in 1949 and the War Labor Board refused to hear the drivers' complaints.

In 1951, he said, he decided to get out of the party. He and his

White House Accused of Suppression

Cabinet Report Withheld Says Senator Mahoney

WASHINGTON — Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney charged today that the White House has "suppressed" a section of a cabinet-level report on transportation because it is "so new" in its anti-aviation slant.

The Oklahoma Democrat said his Senate Commerce subcommittee on aviation will try to "flush out" the report to prove the existence of a "ground-minded clique" in the administration.

The subcommittee's interest is part of its investigation into the ouster of Frederick B. Lee as civil aeronautics administrator. Monroney has claimed that Lee was "railroaded" out of the top CAA post late last year by a "ground-minded clique" headed by Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks and Commerce Undersecretary Louis S. Rothschild.

Lee, a Vermont Republican, was called back before the subcommittee today for his second day of testimony. The subcommittee wanted details of his conversation with Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams preceding the White House announcement of Lee's resignation.

The controversial transportation report, released last April, was drafted by a cabinet-level Transportation Advisory Committee to the President, headed by Weeks. The report encountered bitter criticism from the trucking industry for its major recommendation that federal regulations be liberalized so as to give railroads a better chance to compete with trucking and water transportation.

Monroney said the aviation section of the report was "so raw that I understand the White House suppressed it."

W. R. Jackson, Long Time Local Resident, Dead

W. R. "Stonewall" Jackson, long time Village resident and manager of E. F. Hutton and Co. for many years prior to its temporary interruption of service during World War II, died January 3 in Willcox, Arizona.

He was associated with the brokerage house in operation here prior to its purchase by E. F. Hutton and Co., and then continued with the managerial post until World War II.

Funeral services will be conducted today, Thursday, in Willcox.

Survivors include his widow, Jess, and one son, Bill.

Kuchel Believes President to Run

WASHINGTON — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.), said today he believes the possibility of President Eisenhower running for reelection "increases with each passing day."

He made the statement when a reporter asked how many Republican tickets there are likely to be in California's presidential primary June 5. If the President runs there will be only one ticket, he said.

"I shudder to think how many there will be otherwise," he added.

Minnesota produces 2,000,000 board feet of lumber annually.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

gram of economic aid. He said we must "sustain and fortify" our existing mutual security program.

On the home front, the President called for:

"Constant improvement" of our defense structure.

A new program to help farmers, including a double-barreled "soil bank" plan to reduce acreage and cut big government surpluses. He urged that farm legislation be kept out of politics.

A broad new highway program. A new system of federal assistance in natural disasters, including an experimental plan to pay for flood losses.

A NEW FIVE-YEAR program of federal aid in building schools. He said he would recommend later "further expansion" of social security coverage.

He asked for a stepped up program of federal aid for medical research and said he would recommend later a new plan for assistance to medical schools.

He said the government should take steps to cushion the heavy and rising costs of illness and hospitalization. He said this should be done either by federal reinsurance of voluntary health insurance policies or by some other method.

The President asked, again, for expanded coverage of the wage-hour laws. He disclosed that the administration will ask later for legislation to require public disclosure of the financial affairs of union pension and welfare funds.

THE PRESIDENT SAID the nation has made great progress in the past three years and has reason to be grateful to providence for its many many bounties.

"Our country is at peace. Our security posture commands respect. A spiritual vigor marks our national life. Our economy, approaching the 400 billion dollar mark, is at an unparalleled level of prosperity.

"The national income is more widely and fairly distributed than ever before. The number of Americans at work has reached an all-time high. As a people, we are achieving ever higher standards of living—earning more, producing more, building more and investing more than ever before."

The President said "virtually all" segments of the economy are sharing in the good times.

Farm families, "if we act wisely, imaginatively and promptly," can also look forward to sharing equitably in the general prosperity.

"OUR FARM PEOPLE are not sharing as they should in the general prosperity," the President said. "They alone of all major groups have seen their income decline rather than rise."

He said he will send Congress later, Monday, according to Key

Conference Called to End French Crisis

Immediate Session of Parliament Sought by Leaders

By WILBUR G. LANDREY

United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS — Socialist leader Guy Mollet and Pierre Mendes-France called an urgent conference today to consider immediate convocation of the National Assembly to end France's government paralysis.

The assembly is not scheduled to meet until January 19 and until then Premier Edgar Faure will head a lame duck cabinet that has no real authority to make major decisions affecting France and its allies.

The Mollet-Mendes meeting was suggested by the Socialist Party as Paris newspapers predicted that a Socialist-directed government was the only one that could resolve the crisis.

There was a growing belief the center parties and the non-Communist left would have to join in a back-to-the-wall battle to save France from government jeopardy by Communists and rightwing extremists.

Faure paved the way for such a move Wednesday when he suggested that the future government would have to include members of his own center-right front and the republican front of his rival, Mendes-France. Both Faure and Mendes presumably would be out of a coalition.

Ask U. S. Flood Insurance

WASHINGTON — The administration asked Congress today to authorize flood loss insurance under which the federal and state governments would share premium costs with the individuals protected. Up to three billion dollars worth of such insurance could be issued.

President Eisenhower requested the "experimental" program in his State of the Union Message. Details were spelled out in a bill introduced on behalf of the administration by Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.).

Bush described the program as "a sound base from which to start." The bill was prompted by the devastating floods last year in the Northeast and in the West.

The bill would authorize the federal government to cooperate with

Horizon Trailer Village Busy at Holiday Season

Harold Nutzman, who is chairman of the shuffleboard court at Horizon Trailer Village, made awards to Gertrude McLaren and Art Berg; low prizes to Laura and Fred Fisk. Prizes were chicken dinner to the winner and a hamburger to the loser, which were donated by Robert's Fine Food.

Bonnie Welch and Eric Gibian painted a "cool" Christmas scene on the large window at the end of the dance hall next to the swimming pool.

Mac McKesson, who has done an excellent job of making the coffee hour pleasant, has been named captain of the shuffleboard team. Frank Segerstrom has kindly offered to relieve him in the first task, and is being relieved or assisted in turn by his wife and Mrs. Berg.

ALL OF HORIZON turned out for a festive Christmas party. Marge Miller served as hostess for the buffet at 9, after which all enthusiastically entered into singing Christmas carols, which many had participated in earlier in the evening as they congregated by the Christmas tree in front and wandered up and down the Village streets serenading folks. To add to the Christmas party, a reading was given by Mrs. Mary Segerstrom, which was followed by Gilbert Paquette singing three numbers "The Lord's Prayer," "Holy Night" and "Winter Wonderland." The Christmas spirit was added to by the playing of Christmas carols on the tape recorder throughout the holidays.

Eva and Charlie Dwelley have returned from their trip to their home in Brentwood.

On Friday Pat Young told Horizon residents of her life while in La Rochelle, France. She did an excellent job of both the telling and showing slides. Residents also enjoyed colored slides of the great northwest-Lake Louise, Banff country, Jasper National Park, shown by Mr. Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Yager had their children with them during the holiday of Christmas.

RAY AND INEZ Johnson are greatly appreciated by the dancers of Horizon and were accordingly presented with a chaise longue apiece by dancers of the park.

Diego Williams is leaving the park midweek for an undetermined stay in Long Beach and is renting her trailer in the meantime to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Palmer of Los Altos.

Gertrude Martin has her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haight visiting her for just a few days. They are from Cherokee, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Berg's son, Jerry Berg, has flown down from Sacramento to visit them, pick up a new car, and have his wife join him in Pasadena.

Bonnie Welch gave a showing of her paintings in the hall Monday between 2 and 6 p.m. She is a member of the California Art Club and has exhibited her paintings in most of the leading galleries of Southern California.

Izer Davis was surprised New Year's Eve by finding himself on the platform in the dance hall being presented with a birthday cake for his 80th birthday. The cake was brought in by a group of girls singing the traditional birthday greeting and the entire group joined in the celebration.

W. Peterson;

Staley Rosin, a director; Mayor Florian Boyd; Elmer Walberg, the association's secretary and loan officer; Bill Smith, CVSLA president, and Harry Williams, a director and head of Williams, Williams and Williams, architects for the new building which will house Coachella Valley Savings headquarters before the opening of another Winter season here in Palm Springs.

Small Court at Indio Costs County Money

The county supervisors appeared unhappy this week when they received a request from Supervisor Court Judge Hilton H. McCabe for additional funds to pay for rental of the Elks Club quarters in Indio for purpose of holding court, but agreed they had no choice in the matter and must foot the bill.

At the suggestion of Supervisor Varner the letter from Judge McCabe was filed and he is to be notified that payment will "necessarily" be paid upon presentation of a warrant for a specific amount.

Judge McCabe informed the supervisors that the Superior Court Room at Indio is not large enough to handle the jury panel, litigants, witnesses and numerous counsel for the Romero vs Hatchett's Auto Court case which after two days' trial was continued to December 27 and was expected to take nine or ten trial days.

Rental fee for the Elks Club room is $25 per day, according to Judge McCabe, and only $22 remains in the rental budget. In addition to the Romero vs Hatchett case, he said another case on the March 5 calendar is expected to require more room. He estimated it will take eight trial days to conclude.

Assessor Here Given Mileage

Use of his personal car on county business and reimbursement on a mileage basis was authorized by County supervisors this week for Ernest R. Ball, deputy assessor, Palm Springs, on recommendation of County Assessor Frank Burchfield and County Garage Superintendent R. A. Smith.

Burchfield said Ball drives his car approximately 400 to 500 miles per month.

It's practical when a car is driven that much," said Supervisor Jones.

Thrifty Drug's $2 Million Sale Proves Popular with Villagers

One of the most popular New Year's resolutions among local residents seems to be taking advantage of Thrifty Drug Stores' $2,000,000 semi-annual Clearance Sale, according to local Thrifty management. The managers revealed that many stocks will be depleted before the sale ends.

The gigantic sale will run the entire length of January, with special bargains featured in all departments. Many of the items included are every-day household needs, and many more are worthwhile gifts or luxury items.

THRIFTY'S BUYERS take these semi-annual events as an opportunity to "clean house" at Thrifty's main warehouse, sending thousands of brand new merchandise items out to the store to be priced at sensational prices, while they last. Many quantities are limited, and all merchandise is available only as long as the store's stock lasts, since these are all short-lots from Thrifty's gigantic warehouse.

Local residents are urged to take advantage of these savings while all supplies are adequate, Thrifty officials said. With hundreds of items included in the sale, there has been selected something of interest to everyone.

Departments participating in the huge Clearance Sale include drugs and cosmetics, dry goods and wearing apparel, hardware, stationery and school supplies, candy, tobacco and beverages.

EVERYTHING INCLUDED in Thrifty's $2,000,000 Clearance Sale is carried in regular stock at local Thrifty Drug Stores. None of the merchandise is "Sale Merchandise" imported for this event, but factory fresh first quality stock found on Thrifty's shelves 12 months a year.

Local residents are urged to take advantage of these savings while all supplies are adequate, Thrifty officials said. With hundreds of items included in the sale, there has been selected something of interest to everyone.

Personnel Director Employment Lauded

"You and other board members should be congratulated upon securing the services of a good man to fill an office that can be of real value to Riverside county government," Frederick B. Gillette of the California Taxpayers Association's research department declared in a letter received Tuesday, by Supervisor William Jones, board chairman.

Don Spencer, former employee of Orange county, will take office January 9 as Riverside county's first personnel director. His employment was recommended by Administrative Officer Begole.

Mounted Police to Hear Lecture

Dr. William Aikin will lecture on first aid at a meeting of the Palm Springs Mounted Police to night at Los Compadres Clubhouse, starting at 8 p.m.

First aid is extremely important in case of emergency, according to Capt. Kenny Paul, and all members are urged to attend.

On Saturday evening, installation of new members will be held at a dinner dance in the South Pacific Room of El Mirador Hotel. Elmo Purnell is in charge of arrangements, and Judge Eugene Theriault will give the oath of the Police to new members.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(Editor's Note: The following letter, which was titled "A Christmas Tribute," was written by Lew Holston, author, director and producer.)

How much does your mail mean to you? Do you like to be remembered at Christmas? Do you like to receive those gifts from home, Christmas letters from dear ones, the season's greetings across the miles and years from old friends? Of course you do! We all do. Let us pay tribute today to the men and women in the United States Postal Service. These workers have done a wonderful job. Let us forget, follow me in a quick review.

The postal service, despite the handicaps the employees have no control over, is a great service. At this time of the year it is a miraculous service. For three cents I send a Christmas card to an old friend in Cheyenne, and five days later the same three cents brings it back with the message that my old pal has moved, and left no forwarding address. (Careless chap!) We have received numerous cards forwarded to us from half a dozen former addresses, and all at a cost of three cents.

From my observations of the past few weeks the postal employees have been doing a good job the nation over. I can find things in the service to complain about, but nothing in the employees to warrant anything but our praise.

In snooping around your local post office I felt I was in a regular storm of white envelopes with their pretty stickers. I saw so many of your Christmas cards it made me dizzy. The tonnage increase in mail at Christmastime is staggering, and the stamp sales soar to an unbelievable figure. Considering the cost of postage, and the variety of new stamps, however, I found them to be the best buy of the season.

Let us not forget the men and the women behind the postage stamps, the faithful workers handling our mail, and bless them today.

The others I would congratulate are the editor for printing this tribute, the churches for their story of the Nativity, the workers who conducted the Christmas seal campaign, the service clubs, the charitable and benevolent organizations, the members of the Chamber of Commerce, the traffic enforcement officers, the "angels of mercy" working in our hospitals, and particularly, all those who preach, teach, and live the gospel of Him whose birthday we are celebrating. In the words of Tiny Tim, "God bless us every one."

LEW HOLSTON.

Box 190
Palm Springs, Calif.
Dear Friend:

On behalf of the Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church, I thank you for your contribution to the Christmas Festival, which is sponsored by the Guild of this Church. The traditional "Christmas Tree Festival" has become a wonderful part of the Guild's work, and is enjoyed by the many townspeople who attend.

You merchants and service people who have contributed, have, through your generosity, aided both the Guild and the Church in its special work in Palm Springs. Through the work in the Guild, many things have been accomplished for this Church, especially as regards mortgage payments on the Church structure.

Thank you. May your New Year be both joyous and prosperous.

Faithfully Yours,
(Rev.) William A. Blondon, Jr.
Rector, St. Paul's in the Desert.

The Desert Sun
Palm Springs, Calif.
Gentlemen:

The generous publicity which you have always given the Postal Service has been greatly appreciated, but I would like to especially thank you for the publicity which had so great a part in making our recent "Mail Early" Christmas program a success.

Best wishes for a successful New Year.

Sincerely yours,
S. M. WILLIAMS,
Postmaster

The Desert Sun,

Dear Sirs:

Congratulations upon a splendid Daily Desert Sun. It is worthy of a community many times the size of Palm Springs. More power to you.

We are planning to be back in Palm Springs before many months. Greetings and best wishes,
Sincerely,
J. M. CLINTON,
1000 Warburton Avenue,
Yonkers 3, New York

My dear Sir:

I speak for all of our youngsters when I thank you and your associates for your interest and support during the past year.

The Sun has been good to us in that homeless youngsters have been publicized. Since Hanna Center is supported principally by voluntary contributions from Californians, this recognition means a great deal to us, and will help us toward our goal of accepting additional homeless boys.

Please visit the Center at your first opportunity. You will always be welcome at "the Boys' Town of the West."

Sincerely,
Rt. Rev. William L. O'Connor
Director

Supervisors Lift Law on Farm Labor Housing

An amendment to the county house moving ordinance, adopted by the supervisors Tuesday, removes buildings used to house farm laborers from requirements of the ordinance, and leaves them under the jurisdiction of the State Housing Authority.

When the ordinance becomes effective February 2, it will no longer be necessary for any one constructing or re-constructing moved buildings which are to be used for the housing of farm laborers to obtain building, electrical and plumbing permits from the county as presently required.

Only Supervisor Roman Warren voted against the amendment. "I hate to see this change made county-wide," he said. "I realize it is a problem in some areas of the county, but removal of these buildings from permit requirements in my district means there's nothing to prevent putting labor camps there in places where not desired. I wish the problem could be handled in another way."

"We are penalizing the ranchers by not allowing them to use these substandard buildings for farm labor purposes," said Supervisor Homer Varner.

Varner said 13 such buildings located across from Bing Crosby's million-dollar trailer camp site will now be made available to ranchers. "Everyone has been anxious to get them away from there," he declared. He said Crosby has taken an option on the structures but because of the county's house-moving restrictions he has been unable to dispose of them to the ranchers who want and need them.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Indians took rookie of the year honors with a strikeout whiz named Herb Score and the chatter around the hot stove league today is that they'll be up there in the 1956 freshman race against strong bids by Chicago and Washington.

The Indians have high hopes for another pitcher and a blasting outfielder, but the White Sox will have three strong contenders for rookie honors and the Senators are touting a young outfielder who hits big.

Practically every other club in the league looks to be strengthened by young blood but the Indians, White Sox and Senators may have the prize packages.

CLEVELAND LIKES six foot, four inch Hank Aguirre, who was only 11-9 at Indianapolis but came up at season's end and beat Boston and then Detroit on a three-hitter. Also drawing raves is Rocco Colavito, with 29 homers and 104 RBIs at Indianapolis. Cleveland says it could have obtained Mickey Vernon if it threw Rocco in on the deal.

The White Sox are booming shortstop Luis Aparicio, outfielder Ed White and pitcher Joe Dahlke. Aparicio, 21, is a sure fielder whose speed led the Southern Assn. at Memphis with 48 stolen bases. White, a 29-year-old former Alabama grid ace, hit .342 at Memphis with 17 RBIs. Dahlke, 23, looks like a potentially great relief man. At Memphis he paced the Southern Assn. with a 1.85 ERA, posting a 19-5 mark and refusing to give up a home run in 44 games.

WASHINGTON'S major hope is outfielder Neil Chrisley, 22, a strapping six foot, two slugger who hit .320 at Nashville. It also likes pitcher Vibert Clarke, 25, who was 16-12 at Charlotte.

The Yankees, equipped as well as they are, may have to make room for shortstop Jerry Lumpe and first baseman Marv Throneberry, 21, who led the American Assn. with 36 homers and batted in 117 runs at Denver. Lumpe, 22 and six feet, two is a "Marty Marion type" shortstop who hit .301 at Birmingham.

There will be a flood of rookies in the Red Sox camp but apparently certain to stick is catcher Haywood Sullivan, 25, and six, four. He has good power and is a graceful receiver.

BALTIMORE IS HIGH on two speedball pitchers, Charlie Locke, 23, and chunky Bob Harrison, 25. Locke was 18-13 at San Antonio, hurling five shutouts. Harrison was only 14-12 at Wichita but fanned 270 in 208 innings. He won three games in the Western League playoffs, including a no-hitter and a one-hitter. In those 28 innings he allowed only one run and struck out 37.

Best looking prospect among many in the A's camp is pitcher Glenn Cox, who had an 11-5 mark at Montreal. This 24-year-old is the pitcher for whom the A's gave Brooklyn $45,000.

There are, naturally, many other rookies who will get their shot next Spring and many of them are fine prospects for stardom. But these are the ones counted on to really blossom in 1956 and from their midst probably will come the American League rookie of the year.

Griffith Trophy Goes to Williams

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox slugger, has been named the initial recipient of the Clark Griffith Memorial Trophy by the Washington Touchdown Club. The award, honoring the late president of the Washington Senators, will be made annually to the person who makes the greatest contribution to baseball in the opinion of a special club committee.

O'Donnell Weekly Golf Foursomes Resumed

56 Low Card for Week in Foursomes

Seventh Tourney Draws Villagers Visiting Golfers

O'Donnell Golf Club's weekly choose-up best ball foursome match yesterday saw Dan Gilbert, Dale Anderson, John Hamrick and I. L. Boling shoot a 56 to win the seventh weekly event started in November for the promotion of regular golf competition between Village and visiting linksmen.

Created by B. F. Shearer, of O'Donnell, the choose-up foursome events have continued regularly except for Christmas week, and given many golfers an opportunity to play competitively with a chance of victory regardless of their handicap and experience.

THE BASIS of choose-up best ball foursomes is that players of all degrees of ability are matched in groups so that all total scores would be nearly even. Each player in a foursome plays the hole, and the one who cards the best score for that hole marks his tally on the group's score card.

Often times the best golfers will score their strokes no more than the large handicap players, because a duffer can luck into a hole in one or an eagle as well as a pro. Hence the 10 to 14 strokes under par registered.

ILLUSTRATING the evenness of matching players into foursomes was yesterday's three scores among eight foursomes. The winning team's 56 was one stroke ahead of a two-place tie for second, and two strokes ahead of a five-way tie for fourth.

With scores of 57 were foursomes composed of Barney Geggenschlag, Gail Cave, C. L. Egvedt, and Gordon Prentice; and Charles Bing, Florian G. Boyd, George Howard, and Roy Allen.

Foursomes tied for fourth chose up as follows: Paul Hodnick, S. L. Savidge, Hawthorne K. Dent, and Meade Hargiss.

C. E. Swinthebank, Lester Kleinberg, Lew Wagner, and Dr. Charles H. Baldwin.

J. E. "Dad" French, J. H. Ballinger, Jack Kenaston, and Glenn Thomas.

Pat Martin, Howard Lilly, Fred Nicholson, and Thornton Magee.

Charles Grant, Gus Knezevich, Vern Killinger, and Clark Perry.

SOME REGULAR weekly players were unable to show up. Among those missing were Earle Strebe and Harold Heathman. Strebe is visiting relatives out of town, and Heathman is on a six-week European tour, during which he'll see his son Mike stationed in Germany.

The event will continue, starting next Wednesday at 8 a.m. at the Palm Springs course.

Future Book on 'Anita Handicap is International

AGUA CALIENTE (AP)—The Caliente Future Book on the Santa Anita Handicap has gone international. Operators of the future book reported Wednesday that a wager of $1,000 to win on Swaps was received from an American Army officer stationed in Hong Kong. A Canadian racing fan also has sent $1,000 on Swaps to win.

Swaps is now the favorite at 5-2.

Cleveland's Little Three Sign for '56

But Big Three Still Holding Out Up to Date

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

General Manager Hank Greenberg completed the signing of the Cleveland Indians' "little three of the mound" today and cleared the way for diving hard bargains with high-salaried Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia.

Greenberg announced that strike out wizard Herb Score and Don Mossi had joined Ray Narleski as satisfied employees and pointed out, "It is very comforting to know that we have talented pitchers like them to make up another formidable 'big three' a few years hence."

BUT THE FACT that Score, Mossi and Narleski are the only players Greenberg has signed so far made it clear that Lemon, Wynn and Garcia will be entirely on the defensive when the Cleveland general manager sits down to dicker over 1956 terms with them. For the fact is that the so-called "little three" was probably more valuable to the club last year than the "big three" and is almost certain to be so in 1956.

In Baltimore, meanwhile, Assistant General Manager Jack Dunn of the Orioles announced he had signed southpaw Bill Wright for "a well deserved increase."

THE WORLD CHAMPION Brooklyn Dodgers announced they had signed infielder Jim Gilliam, bringing their satisfied list to five players.

Elsewhere: The New York Giants signed utility man Bobby Hofman, who pinch hit, caught and played first base, second and third last season, and the Pittsburgh Pirates announced the signing of John Mungo Brown, a 23-year-old right-hander who has compiled a brilliant three-year strikeout record in the minor leagues.

Outfielder Enos Slaughter, speaking in Columbia, Mo., said he would continue to play as long as he could and conceded he still carries a grudge against former teammate Marty Marion, now manager of the Chicago White Sox for alleged unfair treatment when Marion was piloting the St. Louis Cardinals.

Patterson Seeks Title Bout with Marciano this Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarkable Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn will try to become the youngest heavyweight champion in ring history this year instead of waiting until 1957 as previously planned.

Just 21, the sleepy-eyed but chain-lightning challenger said today he would be ready to launch this title drive next month in a bout with big Bob Baker of Pittsburgh-date and site to be announced later.

"I want to fight Rocky Marciano for the title in June or September," said the young Negro who was Olympic middleweight champion in 1952 and who has won 27 of his 28 professional bouts — 19 by knockouts. "I believe I can beat him because of my speed and punch."

Manager Gus D'Amato consented to the change in plans last night at a birthday party for Floyd,

Aragon Says He Will Manage His Career in 1956

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fighter Art Golden Boy Aragon said today he would drop his manager, Jimmy Roche, after January 24, and thereafter direct his own ring career.

"That's the way it is," said Aragon, who recently shot over the $1,000,000 mark as a gate attraction at the Olympic Auditorium. Roche has been Aragon's manager since December 28, 1948.

The fighter's attorney, Paul Caruso, said "termination of contract" letters had been sent to Roche, the state Athletic Commission, Hollywood Legion Stadium and Olympic Auditorium, notifying them Aragon would take the action.

Although Roche has a 10-year contract with Aragon, the latter's attorney pointed out that a state law states that a contract involving specialized services is valid for no longer than seven years.

Few Changes Seen in Grid Telecasts

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—J. Shober Barr, director of athletics at Franklin and Marshall College and a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. television committee, predicts there will be few, if any, changes in the televising of college football games next season. Barry says he is basing his view on the reports which he thus far has received from various schools.

Marciano Willing to Meet Patterson

LOS ANGELES (AP)—World's heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano was willing today to give Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn a crack at the title "if he wins the right to a championship bout."

Marciano and his manager, Al Weill, said they would not object to Floyd Patterson as a title challenger when they were asked at a press conference Wednesday for their opinion of the 21-year-old boxer. Patterson has said he is going after the crown this year.

"Patterson fits into the picture along with Archie Moore and Bob Baker," Weill said. "I think a Patterson-Moore bout would be a great elimination round, with the winner to meet Rocky."

MORRISON ON GOLF

Snead Has Many Good Qualities

On Thunderbird's practice tee while preparing for the Ryder Cup matches Sam Snead took time out to improve the grip of his friend Frank Slagle. Snead's popularity results from his many unpublicized good traits.

By ALEX J. MORRISON

Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

SAM SNEAD is a man of many good qualities, few of which have been recognized generally. Most golf fans know about his athletic background and colorful performances in golf competitions. His intimates know that he is an excellent story teller, a mischievous practical joker and always is armed with a ready wit.

But more than these fine qualities have combined in the building of his popularity through the years. I'm sure that all of his good sides have not been noted even by Sam himself. Moreover, most of his 43 years have been filled with a zest for living and golf.

MY PERSONAL observations enable me to credit him with two essentials of greatness, generosity and humility.

I've always found him with a humble attitude toward what he had done or the job he was tackling. His generosity is without ostentation.

His scoring in several tournaments prior to the Ryder Cup matches proved that he meant to win a place on the U. S. team. His practice immediately before the matches at Palm Springs showed that he was mighty keen on playing at his best.

Hogan Plans to Continue Tourney Play

But He Doesn't Plan to Prepare Himself to Win

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ol' Ben Hogan, the golfer's golfer, said today that he planned to play in some golf tournaments this year — but added the precautionary statement that he wouldn't prepare himself to win.

Hogan, here to participate in the pro-celebrity tourney today that is a prelude to the $30,000 Los Angeles Open starting tomorrow, said he didn't plan to play in any more National Open tournaments.

The greying former king of the links, now 43, said he was "happy" in his semi-retirement.

"After the pro-amateur here, I'm going to watch the rest of the boys play for one day, then go up to Pebble Beach to play with some friends for a few days," he said. "That's the kind of a golfer I'm going to be from now on."

HOGAN WAS RELAXED as he sat and told of his new work-making golf clubs at his factory.

"We have two shifts working with 85 employees," he said. "We make about 800 sets a month and in another month we hope to have caught up on our backlog of orders."

After Pebble Beach he'll go back to Texas and then to Florida to play in a pro-amateur tourney at the Seminole Golf Club.

"I've played exactly six rounds since the National Open at San Francisco," he added. "This will be my seventh here today."

He isn't planning on playing in the proposed $100,000 Houston tournament — and he definitely will not be playing in the Chicago Tam O'Shanter tourney.

DOES HE MISS the tourney trail? "Sure I miss the tourney trail, but I'm happy in the work I'm doing," he said. "Being a tournament golfer is like a fire hose. Every time you hear the bell ring, you are ready to go in to action."

"I've finally broken myself of that feeling and it doesn't bother me to miss the tournaments. It's like breaking the cigarette habit. He has put on quite a bit of weight, but still isn't pudgy."

"I used to play at 145 pounds," he said, "but now I'm up around 165."

"You know, it's hell to 'go back' on your game once you get it half-way decent. You hate shooting a bad score, just like you fellows probably hate writing a bad story."

"I'D LIKE JUST to play in an occasional pro-am tournament where my score didn't figure too prominently in the outcome." He added that after his long lay-off he doesn't have too much trouble with his woods.

"But the short game is hard to get back into shape," he said. "You lose your touch. I think maybe it is because of the way you use your eyes."

"And then as you get older, your nervous system goes a little whacky and this shows in your short game."

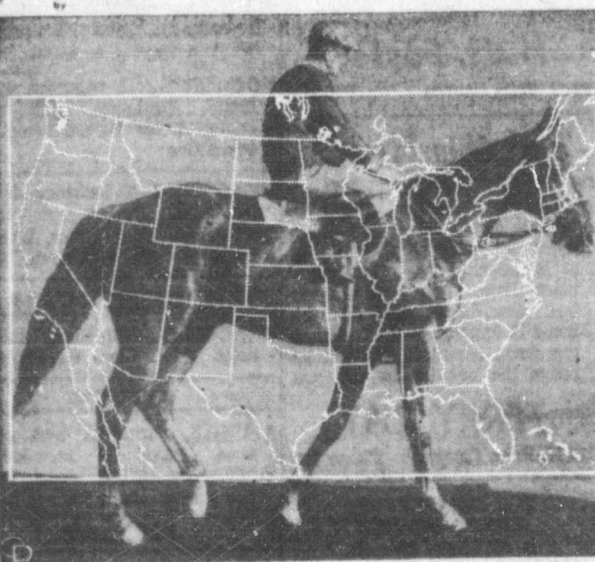

"And the pressure on a golfer who usually is among the top five, is much greater than those who are around, say, the 10th position. They last longer because their nervous system isn't under such a strain."

Star-Studded Golf Play Starts Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A star-studded pro-celebrity golf tournament got under way here today with the featured player none other than Bentam Ben Hogan.

Hogan will go 18 holes with professional Jimmy Demaret and amateurs Dennis O'Keefe and Bill MacDonald.

LITTLE TRAVELING MUSIC, PLEASE

FOR A "SOCIAL OUTCAST," Alfred Vanderbilt's chestnut gelding sure gets invited around. The horse, a one-time "work" horse for Native Dancer, skimmied over 12,000 miles to compete in eight states and 15 race tracks from east to west, north and south, in 1955. And Social Outcast compiled a fine record, too, winning seven stakes and the Handicap champion's role of 1955. He's now at Hialeah, for more glory and money. (International)

DRY NOW

ON THESE two new houses and we invite you to take a look! Both are smart, modern design and each has three bedrooms with two baths of shiny tile... so easy to keep clean. A wife-saver kitchen with built-in range — real efficiency here. And there are lots and lots of closets. The fireplace in each living room is beautiful — each home also has central heat. There are citrus trees, bearing fruit now, and the landscaping will be finished soon. These homes are located in the new Biltmore Estates... We would enjoy showing them to you. Properly priced at $30,500 and $33,500.

of Mental Ills

By DELOS SMITH

United Press Service Editor

NEW YORK, (U) — An expert has further lowered the percentage of mentally deficient persons who are deficient because of heredity. He believes they number somewhat less than one-third of the total.

That called dramatic attention to a field of scientific research where new knowledge could result in immediate benefits to the race. But normal people shy away from it — the subject is unpleasant. So research
